

OPEN CALL: SHOOT THE BOOK! SÉRIES MANIA 2026

What and for whom

The upcoming edition of Shoot the Book! Séries Mania will take place on 24 and 25 March 2026 during the Séries Mania Festival in Lille, France. This unique programme, developed by SCELF in partnership with Séries Mania and Pro Helvetia, offers publishers a strategic platform to showcase their most promising titles to international TV and streaming producers, and to connect with key players in the series industry.

This year's programme includes two main activities:

- > A full day of B2B meetings on Tuesday, 24 March, where publishers present two titles from their catalogue during one-on-one meetings with international film and series producers
- > A pitching session on Wednesday, 25 March, where publishers can present one of their submitted titles—if selected by the Shoot the Book! jury—to international film and series producers

Pro Helvetia invites publishing houses in Switzerland to participate in the Shoot the Book! Séries Mania programme. By taking part, publishers benefit from professional support from an adaptation expert regarding titles and negotiations, a masterclass on adaptation, and networking events. Pro Helvetia covers expenses related to travel, accommodation, and accreditation.

The Shoot the Book! Séries Mania programme is part of the Séries Mania Forum for professionals, which runs from 24 to 26 March 2026.
